DOCUMENT ANALYSIS WORKSHOP DEVELOPED FOR OCR

At the request of the Librarian, OCR, the Reading Improvement Branch Intelligence School, has developed a short intensive course in abstracting for analysts of the Analysis Branch, CIA Library. This course, The Document Analysis Workshop, emphasizes the patterns of reading which one should develop basic to the writing of document abstracts. Students practice abstracting documents, and discuss the principles of Reading -Abstracting. The Reading Improvement Branch/OTR thus far has conducted two workshops; the first, for six section chiefs, ran 10 hours during a one week period; the second, for seven analysts was given during a two-week period, 20 hours.

Components interested in a special presentation of this workshop may direct inquiries to Chief, Intelligence School/OTR, extension [REDACTED]

1957! NEW, REGIONAL-TYPE AMERICANS
ABROAD COURSES ADDED

Practical information and advice for personnel planning to go abroad will be made available to many more employees next year.

The Americans Abroad courses during the past 12 months have been concerned only with individual countries, [REDACTED] in 1957, in addition to these country-type courses, regional-type courses are being offered for employees going elsewhere in Western Europe, the Far East, and the Middle East. (See the Area Training Program amended schedule in the July 1956 OTR Bulletin and the "Courses, Activities, and Programs" section in various issues.)

The country-type course has been found to be feasible only when a sizable and steady flow of personnel to a particular country can be anticipated. Yet, the practical indoctrination thus far given for promoting rapid adjustment to living in [REDACTED] has been recognized throughout the Agency as a "natural," and the demand for extending the geographic coverage of the Americans Abroad courses has grown.

In the new regional-type courses, of the 15 hours of scheduled course time, only a part - 7 to 10 hours - will be devoted to formal sessions in this type of course. These sessions will be devoted to such across-the-board subjects as implications of becoming foreigners, medical advice, legal implications, processing problems, locational orientation, strategic importance of the region to the U.S., regional travel opportunities, regional social customs and attitudes. →

The balance of the course time - 5 to 8 hours - will be reserved for oral indoctrination, given by recent returnees from the country to which the students are being assigned, tailored in so far as possible to individual student needs. In part, this indoctrination will be supplemented with directed reading on the country concerned.

It is particularly important that you enroll two full weeks in advance for attendance in these new regional type courses. See your Training Officer well in advance.

CORPORATION EXECUTIVE CONFERENCES

The School of Advanced International Studies of Johns Hopkins University and its affiliated Foreign Service Educational Foundation present each year a series of meetings designed specifically to meet the requirements of the executive with international interests -- to exchange mutual understanding between business executives, labor leaders and government officials on matters affecting American business operations abroad.

Attendance at such meetings is limited. However, a small quota has been obtained which permits Agency personnel to attend these two-day sessions on a non-participating basis, as guests of the President, Foreign Service Educational Foundation.

Conferences scheduled for the remainder of the 1956-57 season are:

December 12th-13th, 1956: Legislation Affecting U. S. Trade and Investment Overseas.

An analysis of existing and pending legislation affecting the long term international interests of U.S. business.

February 5th-6th, 1957: The current Situation in Latin America.

Annual discussion of the problems facing U. S. business in Latin American operations.

POLICY ON AGENCY SPONSORSHIP OF ACADEMIC RESEARCH LEADING TO GRADUATE DEGREES

The Director of Training has approved a policy permitting limited financial support of research performed by Agency Career Staff employees in production of theses or dissertations meeting requirements for graduate degrees. You may request such assistance under the following circumstances:

1. You have designed your research program with a view to producing results that may make an original, significant and useful contribution to some problem of concern to the Agency.

2. You have completed all course requirements, and you have received a grade average of B or better in all graduate courses taken for full credit.

3. You have consulted the appropriate Operating Official in your component, and he has agreed to designate one or more persons to participate in an advisory committee convened and chaired by the DTR or his designee.

4. You will (a) report on progress not less frequently than once every three months to your advisory committee and to the DTR, and (b) deposit with the Director of Training one copy of the final research paper for appropriate circulation within the Agency.

Individuals whose requests for Agency support are approved under this policy will be allowed the academic fee charged for research credit and a flat fifty dollars ($50) for expenses of typing, etc. →

This second allowance will become payable when the final copy is deposited with the Director of Training. No other allowances, retroactive or otherwise, will be approved.

Individuals desiring to avail themselves of this opportunity will submit Form 136, "Request for Training at Non-CIA Facility." Attached thereto will be the following items:

1. Detailed description and outline of research plan, including description of sources, and tentative schedule for production;

2. A copy of graduate academic record;

3. A statement, by the Operating Official or Career Service Board concerned, nominating person(s) who will serve on the advisory committee. The Chief and Deputy Chief of the Language and Area School are available to provide consultation and guidance to individuals desiring information or assistance; call extension [redacted]

INTEGRATED RUSSIAN PROGRAM (PHASE II)

7 JANUARY TO 5 APRIL 1957

25X1A

The second phase of the integrated program of language and area training in Russian will begin 7 January 1957. Classes will be held six hours a week (Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 0840 - 1030 hours) for 13 weeks. Applications must be received by the Registrar, Office of Training, on or before 24 December 1956. An interview with the instructor, Mr. Robert C. [REDACTED] Room 2605, Wing G, Quarters Eye, extension [REDACTED] is required of applicants.

25X1A

The second phase of this course is designed to increase knowledge of the USSR and to improve the student's knowledge of the Russian language. Lectures and assignments will be based on area materials, including geography, history, economics, politics, literature, art, theory and practice of communism, propaganda, army and navy, and intelligence operations. Whereas the first phase of the program deals primarily with pre-revolutionary Russia, the second phase will deal primarily with Russia and the USSR from 1917 to the present.

A minimum of two years part-time, or nine months intensive, study of Russian, or the equivalent, is a prerequisite to enrolling in this course.

SPECIAL LECTURE SERIES:
IN THE MAJOR LANGUAGES OF THE WORLD

10 OCTOBER TO
1 MAY 1957

All CIA personnel interested in improving their language proficiency and area knowledge are invited to attend a series of foreign language lectures (see Lecture Schedule below) presented Wednesdays at 1530 hours, in room 1-82, Quarters Eye. Information regarding the series may be obtained by calling Dr. [REDACTED] You will, of course, obtain authorization from your supervisor prior to attendance at any one of the lectures.

Recognizing the need for increased knowledge in the language and area fields, the Office of Training is offering this series of lectures to be given in the major languages of the world by CIA personnel. Topics of particular interest, both to analysts and personnel in operations, have been selected. The purpose is twofold: To advance your knowledge of foreign languages; to increase your insight into the understanding of foreign peoples - their patterns of thought and behavior.

A special feature of the program is the amount of attention devoted to the theme "Understanding and Dealing With Foreign Peoples." Individual lecturers will speak on how to understand and deal with the Russians, the Japanese, the Latin Americans, etc. In this way, much of the "know-how" gained by our personnel through years of experience will be transmitted to you. As a result, it is hoped that in your contacts with the different nationalities, both here and abroad, you will be able to establish more effective rapport and attain better results.

Summaries of the lectures, in English, will be provided in the "Understanding and Dealing With Foreign People" talks, and also in a few other instances. The lecture in Arabic, due to the very limited number of Agency personnel able to understand this language, will be given in English with a brief summary following in Arabic.

NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE LECTURES

13 DECEMBER TO 7 JANUARY

Senior Agency personnel, who can be released from duty, may attend individual lectures given at the National War College, Fort McNair, on a "need to know" basis, in accordance with the restrictions and procedures listed below.

The Office of Training has been designated as the point of co-ordination for all Agency requests for attendance at The National War College lectures. Requests may be made by telephone to your Training Officer who will notify the Chief, Plans and Policy Staff/OTR, extension [redacted]. These requests must be submitted no later than eight days prior to the date of the lecture. Notification of the approval of the request will be given by telephone on the day before the scheduled talk. This is the earliest date at which a determination can be made of changes in the schedule.

Attendance at all lectures requires a TOP SECRET clearance. Visitors must be seated in the lecture hall five minutes prior to the lecture and are not authorized to take notes or make a verbatim transcript of the talk. Visitors may not question the speaker during the question period following the talk. All Agency representatives must be in grade of Colonel, Captain, or GS-14 or above. Due to the very limited seating available to visitors, The National War College accepts requests for admission to its lectures on a "need-to-know" basis.

NWC guest lecturers are assured that their remarks will be held in strictest confidence, and will not be attributed to them either directly or through insinuation outside the college lecture hall.

The schedule through 7 January follows: →

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY TESTS

The Foreign Language Proficiency Tests are for those persons who already have some knowledge of a given language, and are designed to test how well a person reads, writes, and speaks that language. Individuals applying for intermediate or advanced study of a language may be required by the Office of Training to take the proficiency test in that language in order to determine just what further training will be most rewarding. The written part of the test (covering reading and writing) requires about 3 - 4 hours and is given in the morning. The oral part requires about 15 minutes for each person and is given in the afternoon. Individuals may elect, or be required to take tests in reading, writing, or speaking, or any combination of these capabilities. All tests are administered on Wednesday. Call extension [REDACTED] at least one week prior to the date of a test, to arrange an appointment.
